

In-class assessment

Each Latin sentence is followed by an English translation. Provide the correct form for the missing word or words in the Latin sentence.

1. Ino cum younger filio Melicerte in mare se deiecit et dea est facta

Together with her younger son Melicertes, Ino throw herself into the sea and was made a god.

2. Hercules uno die regis stercus bobile purgavit, greater partem loue adiutore

Hercules cleaned the cattle stables in one day, the greater part with the help of Jupiter.

3. huic Creon rex Corinthius filiam suam younger Glaucen dedit uxorem

Creon the king of Corinth gave his younger daughter Glaucen in marriage to this man.

4. Achilles ex dea natus est, et stronger than pater suus fuit.

Achilles was born of a goddess, and was stronger than his father.

5. Scylla upper partem feminae, lower canis habuit.

Scylla had the upper part of a woman, and the power part of a dog.

6. is equos aquilone more rapid habuit.

He had horses more rapid than an eagle.

7. ursa habet stellas in capite septem non claras, in pede prior unam.

The (constellation of the) Bear has seven dim stars in its head, and one on the fore (prior) foot.

Due dates

- graded in-class assessment: Friday, Feb. 10
- deadline for retakes: 3:00 pm, Friday, Feb. 17